

GREYSTONES PATIENT PARTICIPATION GROUP

Join us – Your voice matters

The Greystones Patient Participation Group (GPPG) brings patients and practice staff together, giving patients a voice in shaping services and helping to make Greystones Medical Centre even better.

Why join?

- ★ Share your ideas and experiences
- ★ Help identify what matters to patients
- ★ Hear about changes and developments at the practice
- ★ Support improvements for our patient community
- ★ Make sure patients' voices are heard

Two ways to get involved

★ Join the e-group

Stay involved without attending meetings. Receive occasional updates, newsletters and meeting minutes, and share your ideas, feedback and suggestions to help shape the work of the GPPG.

★ Join the face-to-face group

Help co-ordinate the work of the GPPG. The group has up to 14 patient members (plus 2 practice staff), and we meet every 2 or 3 months in the evening at the surgery.
